The Objectives of the Garway Heritage Group

The Group exists to promote interest in local heritage including the area’s history, crafts, traditions and its natural and physical environment. Its objectives are:

- To investigate matters of local heritage interest;
- To publicise the results of its work;
- To reach out to all members of the local community to seek to inform them of, and involve them in, Group activities.
- To make its work available to other individuals or groups who may share its interests.
